

THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL BAR-B-Q FESTIVAL

The first International Bar-B-Q Festival represents the culmination of more than 150 years of a cultural tradition in Owensboro and Daviess County. It is the celebration of a popular part of our past, our present, and hopefully, our future. It is an attempt to bring together the atmosphere of a country church picnic and the excitement of an urban street festival.

It is presented by the Owensboro-Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and four local Bar-B-Q restaurants who are dedicated to preserving Owensboro as the Bar-B-Q Capital of the World. We anticipate that it will be a popular spring festival for years to come.

WHAT IF IT RAINS?

Only if we have a toad-chokin', gully-washer will we postpone the International Bar-B-Q Festival. If we must postpone, the festival will take place two weeks later. Listen to your favorite Owensboro radio station for an up-date, or call (502) 926-1860. In the meantime, be good to your fellow man and attend the church of your choice so we'll have good weather.

OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY

Owensboro is a small city of approximately 55,000 fun-lovin' Kentuckians located on the Dixie side of the majestic Ohio River. There are a total of about 86,000 residents in Daviess County.

We like to refer to Owensboro as "the best of both worlds". It's just the right size so that you can enjoy a home-cooked bar-b-q meal in one of our fine restaurants and then, in a matter of minutes, be watching world-famous entertainers at the Executive Inn Rivermont.

Or you can be enjoying a tractor pull all afternoon, and then hear the state's finest symphony orchestra that evening.

You can listen to an auctioneer sell beautiful antiques from the steps of an old farm house, or you can hear a nationally-known orator speak at one of our local colleges.

The Best of Both Worlds: the lifestyle of country living with the activities of a progressive city. That's what Owensboro is . . . and that's what the Bar-B-Q Festival is. The best of country life brought right downtown to the heart of the city for everyone to enjoy!
